

12th Annual
FESTIVAL OF CULTURES

Saturday May 9, 2015, 10am-4pm
Lee Park, Downtown Charlottesville

What: A day to celebrate the cultural diversity of our community. Free family fun, with music and dance performances, food, exhibits, crafts and cooking demonstrations.

Why: The Charlottesville community is rich in diversity. Many different traditions are represented among our local and international residents. This one day is dedicated to sharing of these cultures. Area residents offer music, dance, and cultural exhibits which demonstrate their traditions. Food from around the world is offered by local vendors. Children are an integral part of the festival as performers, participants in our "passport" program, and sharing hands-on craft activities in a safe and respectful environment.
